Tour Highlight Reel: The cast of The Terminal List: Dark Wolf on the ground - and in the air - with the 106th Rescue Wing in West Hampton, NY

HIGHLIGHTS

- Amazon Studios rolled out the red carpet for New York's Coast Guardsmen to attend the premiere of The Terminal List: Dark Wolf – then brought the action to the field the next day, as stars Taylor Kitsch, Tom Hopper, Luke Hemsworth, Shiraz Tzarfati, and series creator Jack Carr visited the 106th Rescue Wing in Westhampton, N.Y., for C-130 and Jolly Green II flights and a special jump demo with the unit's pararescuemen.
- Magician and illusionist Justin Flom traveled to Alaska to perform for troops at military bases in Anchorage and Kodiak.
- Comedians Jay Pharoah and AJ Foster took their stand-up overseas, bringing big laughs to American airmen at RAF Lakenheath and RAF Mildenhall in the United Kingdom – and proving their range by swapping punchlines for lunch lines as they served meals between sets.

AS SEEN ON TV...

In the season 18 finale of Food Network's The Great Food Truck Race, host Chef Tyler Florence and the USO teamed up as contestants Nishaan and Good Fortune Co. were challenged to craft a $20-"USO bucks" menu – earning mock currency from hungry service members eager to taste their creations. The "Norfolk Fork-Off" took place pier side to the USS George H. W. Bush in Norfolk, Va., where hundreds of sailors enjoyed a day of food, fun, and connection.

REMEMBERING

BRETT JAMES

From Germany to Bahrain, Djibouti to Afghanistan in 2015 – and most recently aboard a ship off the coast of Virginia in 2024 – songwriter Brett James brought music, joy, and heartfelt connection to service members and their families through the USO. We are deeply grateful for every moment he shared alongside our mission. Our thoughts remain with his family, friends, and all whose lives were touched by his generosity and unmatched songwriting talent.
