ROBIN WILLIAMS / USO HOLIDAY TOUR

"There's nothing I enjoy more than traveling with the USO and giving back to our troops in whatever way I can," Williams said during his 2007 USO Holiday Tour. "They work hard, sacrifice a lot and deserve to be treated like the heroes they are. The very least I can do is bring a smile to their faces." Williams performed on six USO tours from 2002 to 2013, visiting troops in 12 different countries and performing for over 89,000 service members during his career.
